Pole work for Dressage and Jumping Clinic

At Parkview Farm, Breach Barns Lane, Waltham Abbey
Monday 16th Jan 2012 and Tuesday 14th Feb 2012

John is an International Trainer, accredited to both British Dressage and British Eventing. He has competed internationally in Eventing and up to Grand Prix in Dressage. John put his own competition career on hold to concentrate on training others around 10 years ago and has had much success with his riders. This has included Event riders winning Olympic, World and European medals and dressage riders winning Regional and National Championships up to Grand Prix.

John teaches riders of all levels, with or without competition aspirations, who wish to improve their riding. He follows correct training principles, with attention to the Scales of Training.

Riders can choose either a flat/polework or jump lesson. Please make your selection clear on the form.

The total cost per rider will be £35 per 45 min/1 hour session (£30 for EEFDG, Forestors and EHNPC) and places must be booked in advance. The clinic will be taught in small groups of 2 to 3 riders. A small number of private lessons may be available. Please contact Rachel for more information.

Please send your form and cheque by Thursday before the clinic. Directions and times will be posted on the website eefdg.org and emailed or you can call 07773 787484 on the Saturday and Sunday before the clinic.
